"Think of all the things
we've shared and seen — don't think about the things which might have been . . ."

"Think of me,
think of me fondly,
when we've said
goodbye.
Remember me once in a while — please promise me you'll try."

". . .Recall those days,
look back
on all those times,
think of the things
we'll never do — there will never be a day, when I won't think of you. . ."

Advisor: Mr. Paone

The Torch Yearbook is more than a tradition at East Bridgewater High School. It is the production of a dedicated staff. Together this staff works for hours on end to create a successful yearbook. However, it is essentially our advisor, Mr. Paone, that accounts for the yearbook's production. The staff would like to thank Mr. Paone for all of his hard work and dedication. We would also like to thank our computer specialist, Mrs. Russell, and our typist, Mrs. Kelm, for all of their hard work. Their efforts have truly made this year's yearbook a success.

"You can't get there from here."
"You'll be sorry." "Never happen."
"Why bother?" "Be cool."
"Play it safe." "It'll never work."
"Leave well enough alone."
Conventional wisdom. Sometimes, it seems, all that is heard is a discouraging word.
But as a high school graduate, you have some unconventional opportunities coming up.
Why not shoot for the moon?

IN MEMORY OF MARY WILCOX

We were all deeply saddened by the loss of a very special teacher and friend, Mary Wilcox.

Mrs. Wilcox first touched our lives as our Middle School chorus teacher and through the years her kindness and generosity brought a special quality to our lives. For those of us with an interest in music, Mrs. Wilcox taught the choral groups and created the first Show Choir at East Bridgewater High School. However, those of us who never belonged to a musical group were also affected by the work of Mary Wilcox. Her efforts in producing the Spring Musicals as well as the musical selections for Baccalaureate and Graduation ceremonies were enjoyed by all.

The following poem was written by Linda McMaster a teacher in Vermont who died recently of cancer. We would like to dedicate this special poem in memory of Mary Wilcox.

LEGACY

I'm not going to grow old with you,
  But I had the absolute joy of growing up with you.
I'll be as old or as young as you choose me to be,
  Filled with as much happiness or doubt
As much confidence or blunder
  As much humor or love
As you wish to recall.
  The memory is yours, unknowingly given.
Who knew it would be your favorite or your last?
  A person at life's end with no future must rely on the past
To create a new future in your memory.
  Carry that moment or day with you.
Recreate it with all the details you wish.
  It is yours to keep;
It is my gift.
